

Whether you are

- new to coaching and want to learn about a proven effective approach or
- integrate solution-focused tools into your existing coaching practice or simply
- looking to find efficient ways to implement organizational change

BRIEF COACHING

might be your choice to develop your personal style to coach others effectively in just a few conversations.

SolutionSurfers offers a proven alternative to mainstream consulting, training facilitation and coaching solutions. In a nutshell, brief coaching is an energizing approach that is goal-focused, powerful, practical and most importantly BRIEF!

SolutionSurfers is an international training organization based in Lucerne. We provide Brief Coach Trainings in different countries and several languages. Here you get an offer for brief coach training in Hungary held in Hungarian,

Our trainings in Hungary are led and held by Kati Hankovszky, an experienced solution-focused coach and SolutionSurfers trainer, coming from a pedagogical background, working in business and training environment since 1995. She co-created the concept of solution focused training methodology which allows a resource based work with teams and groups on a required topic.
